Taiwan Customs authorities have advised the following changes to the customs clearance regulations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Piano(s) will be subjected to duties (as to how much it is not stated). Shippers must not use the “express” channel when first arriving and going through airport immigration. They need to get their passport stamped by the immigration officer. If they fail to get this entry stamp they must specifically apply for an “Entry Certificate” from the Entry and Exit Bureau. This stamp is needed for customs clearance. For foreigners/ expat, need a copy of work permit or ARC (front & back pages) or employment certificate. All inbound shipments (sea, air or both): upon shipper’s arrival to Taiwan, he needs to fill out a customs declaration form and declare that he has an incoming shipment, thereafter, shipper must pass thru the RED CHANNEL and give this form to airport customs. If there is no declaration, customs will impose duty and tax on the shipment.
Removal goods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Copy of shipper’s passport (photo & signature page). Original of Ocean Bill of Lading/Airway Bill (Express bill of lading is acceptable). Complete copy of Inventory (packing list). Consignee block on OBL/AWB must show shipper’s name (same as passport) and c/o destination agent. Copy of shipper’s arrival flight information to Taiwan (e-ticket/ boarding pass) and the corresponding entry stamp inside his passport (within three months prior to shipment arrival). Original Signed Entrusting Letter - 1 for every shipment mode (Customs Authorization Letter typically provided by Destination Agent). Copy of Work Permit or ARC/ Residence Certificate (for Expats) and Residence ID (for Taiwanese) - (front & back pages). 	Each shipment is generally allowed a reasonable/non-commercial amount of used household goods and appliances. (1 type of appliance per incoming family member) Anything more than is deemed a reasonable amount by customs authorities would be subject to import duty and tax.	Household goods must be imported within three months of shipper’s arrival. Shipper must be in Taiwan prior to his shipment arrival. Some used household goods may be subject to duties (up to 10% of value), but not common. Please make sure the destination agent has a copy of the shipper’s passport and all shipment details prior to shipments arrival in Taiwan. Please note that container trailers are prohibited in downtown areas. The following articles are prohibited from entry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Alcohol, wine, liquor and food items, medicines (prescribed or not). Counterfeit coins, security notes, banknotes, plates or dyes for printing
