Consignment information		All shipment must be marked on the OBL as 'Used Personal effects & Household goods' or AWB as 'Used personal effects' only. Do not declare as household goods or household_ effects on the AWB. Original OBL is needed if OBL is not surrendered (express released). Failure to follow the above procedures can cause serious Customs Clearance delays and result in higher import fees to the owners/shipper.
Removal goods	Shipper must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Original Passport • Thai ID card – for Thai. • Non-Immigrant or Residence Visa valid for one year. • Work Permit valid for one year, if available. Origin agent must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legible copy of packing inventory. • Original copy of OBL or airway bill. • Shipments must be marked on the OBL "Used Personal Effects & Household goods" and airway bills as "Used Personal Effects" only. All shipments (except diplomatic) must be consigned to the Shipper's full name (exactly as shown in passport) with title Mr./Mrs./Ms or Miss in front of Shipper's first name.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Duty free entry for used personal effects and household goods but only 1 (one) small air shipment AND 1 (one) shipment by sea only. • Household effects under 6 months in age are subject to duties. • Although the shipper may import more than one shipment, he remains subject to full import duties on the second shipment. We recommend consolidation of shipments prior to their arrival in Thailand. • Personal and household effects must be imported not earlier than one month prior to arrival and not later than six months after the arrival of the importer. • Shipment has to be consigned to full name of shipper c/o Removal Company's address. • Shipper does not have to be present at customs BUT his actual passport has to be presented to customs. 	Duty free entry available to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Returning Thai resident who has lived abroad for more than 12 months. • Must have had their Thai passport stamped from Thailand, and arrival at destination and vice versa. • Thai customs must see an Immigration entry/exit stamp in the shipper's passport. • Do not to go through the electronic lane (mostly for tourist) when shipper arrives at Suvarnabhumi International Airport. Thai customs will need to see the arrival stamp in the passport. In case shipper has gone through that lane on the previous visited to Thailand, it will create difficulties for them to file a proof of arrival in order to receive the duty free status. Shipper will need to obtain the full immigration in/out travel record from the Central Immigration Department in Bangkok.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	Original passport and original work permit must be presented to Customs during inspection. Bond facility is not available pending issuance of work permit. Without the one-year work permit, shipment will be dutiable, only original passport is required during customs clearance.	Furthermore, the following restrictions must always be met for a 1 year work permit or a returning Thai – otherwise the shipment will be classified as non-exempt: 1.1 Shipment must originate from same country as owner’s last place of residence or place of work. 1.2 Shipment must arrive in Thailand not earlier than 1 month prior to owner’s arrival/return to Thailand. 1.3 Shipment must arrive in Thailand not later than 6 months after owner’s arrival/return to Thailand. 1.4 Thai customs allow only one sea and one small air shipment. 1.5 Must contain used items (not new). 1.6 Only one of each type of electrical appliance is allowed, duplicate appliances will be charged full duties.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Too frequent travelling back and forth can cause problems should Customs deem the owner to have not been permanently based in origin country. Each stay in Thailand must not be more than 3 months each time. Shipper has never imported goods into Thailand. Original passport (old passport might be needed), and original Thai ID card must be presented during the customs inspection. • Foreigners holding a one-year non-immigrant B (business) visa with a valid one-year work permit at the time shipment arrives at port. • Foreigner holding Visa type “O”, “O-A”, (Guardian visa) will not be considered for duty free entry and are subject to duties and taxes. • Foreigner holding “Elite visa”, “ED” visa or other categories will not be considered for duty free entry and are subject to duties and taxes. All other categories are subject to high taxes. A VAT of 7% applies to all invoices issued in Thailand. Customs clearance takes five to seven working days.

Before sending the shipment, agent at origin needs to consult and double check with destination agent.	Documentation processing for diplomatic shipments takes approximately one to three weeks by their respective embassy after shipment arrives at port.
Non-exempt from duty		High duties are placed on all goods not conforming to the section above. Particularly high duties apply to electrical goods, carpets and luxury goods. Note: Toys, baby items, PC games, toiletries, cosmetics, washing liquid & powder, foodstuff, alcohol, office items including files, bicycle, exercise equipment, sport equipment, musical instrument, medical items, i.e. blood pressure monitor, electric chair, golf set ARE DUTIABLE and will not be considered for duty exemption. Especially sending via airfreight. Customs at the airport is very strict. They are not expecting shipper to send a large used HHG via air and intend to go through the goods more thoroughly during the inspection. We recommend sending above mentioned items via sea shipment if possible.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
		Air shipment are subjected to more security, inspection, and taxing of dutiable items, so we do not recommend over loading the air freight shipment with electronics, toys, sports gear or make up cosmetics etc. as these items attract high duties. Also, please do not include any Alcohol, food products, Fine Art/Buddha item, liquid soap/shampoo or prescription medicines which are prohibited. Note: Prohibited articles include firearms, ammunition, pornographic literature, short-wave radios, and medical equipment, Buddha head or parts, gold and silver. Note: Wine and spirits, foodstuff, toys, wood product, helmet, Buddha statue, animal skin, trophies require special import licensing and should not be included in the shipment without prior consultation. Buddha statue and Fine Art items will need to be pre-determined if these items will be allowed to import or if need to pre-register with the Fine Arts Department. Note: for all inbound shipments (except diplomatic) agent must have client's actual passport for clearance. With all documentation in order, clearance typically takes 3-5 working days.
